Topic 3: Approve Minutes from the August meeting
Tori motioned to approve the August's meeting's minutes, Kara seconded by Motion passed unanimously.

Topic 4: Staff and Board Communications
The Arts Policy percentage is making progress, and the subcommittee will meet with the Executive Team to discuss it further. The meeting date is TBD.

Jocelyn shared an Arts Council update, noting that the Arts Council will support CVMA (Canyons Village Management Association) and HPCA with the annual Gondola & Snow Globe Art Stroll. The RFP deadline is October 2.

Jenny shared an update from the Summit County Public Art Advisory Board (SCPAAB). The RFP for the public art project at the new Silver Summit Services Building has been re-released with clarification on the theme. The project will include eight artistic benches scheduled for installation next June, with submissions due September 25.

SCPAAB will also collaborate with the Transportation Planning team on the pedestrian bridge project in Kimball Junction. Summit County will send out a community survey to gather feedback, with recommendations to be submitted to the County by October 17.

Jocelyn explained that the Public Art Advisory Board decorates the Old Town Transit Center annually and is encouraging majority participation from the board for this event.

The board discussed dates that work with majority and Tuesday October 20th at 8 am works with breakdown of decorations November 2nd.

Tori brought up doing some Halloween community engagement for next year. Jocelyn recommended that this can be discussed during the strategic planning to brainstorm and include in the plan if this is something that the board wants to move forward with.

Topic 5: Project Updates/No discussion

- New QR codes are being developed for Public Artwork signage.
- Bus Shelter Artwork Phase II - staff are working to finalize contract agreements. Shifting to 10 artwork installs before end of this calendar year. The remaining 6 artworks that were selected will be installed in 2027.
- Artful Bike Racks are tentatively scheduled for installation this fall.
- Artwork re-site: “Waves, Planes, and Parallels” is in process — will be removed and stored on City property. The Artwork will be recited to trail kiosks in Round Valley upon construction.
- EmPOWERment Utility Box Artwork - 4 new artworks have been added to boxes, and staff are working on getting the final 5 artworks installed.

Topic 6: Project Updates For Discussion

The Trail Farmhead Trailhead RFP is being developed, with staff working with the Trails Team to gather additional details. Staff is also preparing an exhibit showing the locations and project specifications. The current timeline is to release the RFP in January 2027, giving artists time to prepare proposals. The Board will then review submissions and select an artist, with installation planned for summer 2027.

At upcoming board meetings, the Board will focus on strategic planning and identifying future projects for the next year. The goal is to have a plan ready to present as budget season begins early next year. The strategic plan will outline the Board’s priority projects, and Jocelyn shared that a five-year plan is recommended.

Molly Miller mentioned a potential future opportunity for public art and beautification at The Mine community center.

Jenny encouraged the Board to review the current Public Art Story Map, which includes the public art inventory and projects completed over the years. Board members are encouraged to bring ideas to the next meeting to help kick off the strategic planning process.

Tori motioned to adjourn the meeting, and Bailey seconded. All were in favor.

Regular Meeting adjourned at 5:56pm
